

LA COMBRICCOLA DEI LILLIPUZIANI

presents

I VESPASIANI

Tizio and Caio are in spite of themselves two brothers, specifically the Vespasian brothers and belong to a strange and unfortunate family of ancient Rome.

They seem to come from an Atellana, the ancient Latin comedy, which made use of some fixed characters, such as the Maccus, the young fools with the fixed thought of food, but do not fear they will not recite poetry in Latin, even if they are Romans do not they remember so well.. they will be willing to do anything to get a piece of bread ... They will entertain you with jokes and jokes, juggling and acrobatics, and be careful because in no time at all you could be catapulted into the old Rome to take part in this strange street theater performance ante litteram ...
